The value of his services in connection with the sanitary legislation now before the Council are too well known to call for special reference · Although in various matters of detail in connection with this subject his views may have. been out of accord with those of property owners, he has shown a willingness at all times to look at both sides of a question and to accept modifications where good reason could be shown. But the most important feature in Mr. MacEwen's policy is his advocacy of democratic as emposed to autocratic interests. His avinguibles are with the community rather than with the officials, and he has consistently advocated the grant to the ratepagers of a share in the control of their own affirs. the Chinese Government, seeing their revenue from this source dwindling to an amount scarce worth consideration, may deem it advisable to put some check on the growth of the poppy in the Central Kingdom. If they intend to adopt this course they will do well to commence before the native opium interest becomes so vast and its power so material as to be able to offer serious and determined opposition to any new taxation. That further taxation of the na-

The cristence of the typhoon was first indicated in the China Coast Meteorological Register on the morning of the 18th according to the last paragraph of chapter II. of the "Law of Storms" (page 9). On the morning of the 18th it was stated that it was N. of Luzon. Directions to hoist the dram were issued at 11.20 mm. At 7 pm. the following notice was issued:—"Typhoon approaching Formosa Channel. Strong N.E. winds rejected from statione there." At 8.60 a.m. on the 17th directions to first the gun one round were given. The following notices were issued on the 17th: (at 10.20 a.m.) "Typhoon S.E. of Hongkong apparently moving north-westward," (at 11.5 a.m.) "Only a strong gale is espected or a storm; at any rate it is not likely to blow so hard as in 1881," (at 4.00 p.m.) "Typhoon S.W. of Hongkong apparently moving north-westward." At 12.20 p.m. directions were given to hoist the south cone and at 1.03 p.m. to hoist the ball. Owing to the absence of direct telegraphic connection with Hongkong and with the other stations earlier or more complete information was not available. The existence of the typhoon was first indicated in the

POST-OPHICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent of delayed (both of which are liable to keppen occasionally all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to ____, or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such metters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course, which generally gives more trouble in the end. The Postal Guide for 1886, revised to date will be found in the Daily Press Directory, p. 385 large edition, p. 701 small edition. This s the only authorised complete Summary of Postal information published in Hongkong. The authorised List of Mails issued in connection with this paper is the one published twice each day in our Extra, which is always corrected to a much later hour than that given
